CLASS OF 1812

HAISEY A. WOOD

Was born September 7, 1793, in Ballston, Saratoga County, New York. He was graduated at Union College in 1812, and was a member of the first class that passed through the Theological Seminary at Princeton. He was settled as Pastor of the Presbyterian Church in Amsterdam, in the spring of 1816, and died on the 26th of November, 1825, in the thirty-third^{year} of his age. He was a man of fine personal bearing, of an eminently genial spirit, of a vigorous and discriminating mind, of admirable social qualities, and of eminent devotedness to his work as a minister of the gospel. He was greatly blessed in his labours; as is proved by the fact that he received in a single year a hundred and thirty to the communion of his church. The Rev. Goodale who is now (1857) Pastor of the same church of which he had the charge, says of him--"though he has now been dead more than thirty years, he lives in the memory of those who enjoyed his ministry, with a vividness which shows that he was capable of making a strong impression."
